

COMMUNITY CALL-OUT!

We are looking for a diverse cast of community members to take part in a rehearsed reading of a riveting wartime play, 'The Komagata Maru Incident' by Sharon Pollock.

This FREE programme will take place in June 2024 as part of Tramshed's Union Festival, A free celebration of Refugees & Migrants living in the Borough, presented in partnership with Greenwich Inclusion Project (GriP)

Play Synopsis:

'The Komagata Maru Incident' by Sharon Pollock is a poignant play explores the events of May 1914, when a group of Indian immigrants arrived in Vancouver Harbour, facing discrimination and denial despite their rights under the British Empire.

What are we looking for?

Individuals (18+) who are members of Greenwich borough.

Individuals with, or without, refugee status (Although those who do are encouraged!)

Individuals who are keen to perform – with OR without experience!

Individuals who can commit to two evening rehearsals and two evening performances.

Location: Tramshed, 51-53 Woolwich New Road, London, SE186ES, & Eltham Centre, 2 Archery Road, Greenwich, SE9 1HA

Performance Dates: 20th & 21st June 2024

Rehearsals: W/C 10th June (These are flexible and will support people's working patterns)

How do I apply?

If this opportunity interests you then kindly fill out our quick online application form below and we will be in touch soon!

We welcome applications from people from all backgrounds and walks of life. However, individuals with refugee status are strongly encouraged to apply.

There are limited spaces, so we will be operating first-come first-serve.

Application form: <https://forms.office.com/e/RNU34LZgZ8>

