The screenshot displays the 'lifestyle Business' website interface. At the top right, the user's email '123@email.com' and name 'Bobs C' are visible. A navigation bar includes 'Place order', 'Order history', 'Templates', and 'Events'. A light blue notification banner states: 'You have a £2,500 limit credit or debit card payment account. Would you like to increase your credit card limit or pay by invoice? Click here'. Below this, the heading 'Start your order below' is followed by the instruction 'Please choose the type of order you would like to place from the options below'. Three main options are presented in cards: 1. 'Physical vouchers' with an image of gift cards and a 'Select' button. 2. 'Digital eVouchers' with an image of a laptop, tablet, and smartphone displaying the voucher interface and a 'Select' button. 3. 'Bespoke order' with an image of a hamper and a 'Contact Us' button. At the bottom, a 'Resume your orders' section shows a table with columns for 'Order date', 'Total', 'Delivery type', and 'Quantity'. The text 'NoteBook Pro' is visible at the bottom of the laptop screen.
