Emma Heath provided an update to the Board and SMT on Marketing.

Highlights:

- Royal Highland Show 2025.
- Summer Campaign Activity including STV brand story (almost ready to launch on 14th July 2025).
- Excellent Meatopia and BBQ activation to start during summer 2025.
- Butcher's research focus groups.
- Positive interactions during Beef Industry Leadership Group meetings.
- Cattle and Sheep standards signed off by UKAS.

Challenges:

- Red Tractor Tiered Welfare Proposals and scoping what it means for QMS going forward.
- Potential capacity issues in BI team on several large projects this year.

Holly McLennan provided an update to the Board and SMT on Communication and External Affairs.

Highlights:

'Meating Our Potential' partnership campaign with the SRMRG

- Positive stakeholder response to holistic comms plan – rooted in evidence from beef sector economic modelling.
- Very successful publicity launch of 'a couple more cows per herd to realise our potential' as part of QMS media forum – front page TSF and national TV and reaching 37.5k on socials.
- Censuswide consumer perception of imports survey for citizen news
- Digital support hub for industry – launched at Beeftech (currently working on 'producer toolkit').

Climate Change Committee's carbon budget Scottish advice – Chair's statement

- Two new starts including Louise Thompson (External Affairs Manager) and Abby Forsyth (Community Engagement Coordinator) due to start in July 2025.

Community engagement events

- Reached around 3,300 school pupils between April-May, which included Border Union Countryside Day and two Eat to Complete sessions at Murrayfield and Bell Baxter.
- Team planning day in Glasgow.

Challenges:

- Lots going on proactively and reactively from peak events season, Meating Our Potential, reacting to changing political and global trade landscape, recruiting for new starts and upcoming Red Meat Industry Profile, ahead of summer leave.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Jane Craigie Media (JCM) has been brought in to support Meating Our Potential.</li> </ul> The QMS Board wished to place on record a thanks to Holly and her team for its work on the Meating Our Potential campaign. Action: Holyrood Sources Podcast Holly to consider the Holyrood Sources Podcast with Louise Thompson (External Affairs Manager).	Holly

23.0	QMS Committee Meeting Updates: Beef Industry Leadership Group Meeting – 5th June <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Feeling that there has been a shift in public mood on GHG emissions, with a general feeling of not being too concerned. Particularly when put against importance of getting good nutrition in diet.</li> <li>Disparity between Defra and SG in going with low/high frequency tags.</li> </ul>

- Kate Rowell gave an update on the Meating our Potential campaign, given the importance of getting this group's buy-in.
- Presentations on 'From upstream to downstream and back: the power of data and information' were given by Ian Niven, Gloagburn Farm, John McMaster, ABP and Gordon King, Scottish Craft Butchers.
- These presentations looked at clarity of requirements (who wants what) and the impact of actions in one area of the supply chain on another.
- Meeting dates for year ahead finalised: Weds 1 October 2025, Weds 25/Thurs 26 Feb 2026.

Pig Industry Leadership Group – 30th April

- First meeting in current membership format held on 30 April. Attendance = 70%.
- The group discussed the effectiveness of benchmarking (Agrovision) and how accuracy could be improved, as well as additional information of value such as antibiotic usage.
- It was agreed that regarding freedom farrowing, it was important to proactively engage with Scot Gov, before they go out to consultation. There would also need to be a different approach from planning regulators, to enable easy adoption of freedom farrowing.
- There could be a tailored approach for everyone if the operational cost for farmers vs incentive cost from retailers was calculated (cost of investment vs conversion).
- Could turn it into a positive by saying "we are able to convert everyone in X number of years".

Remuneration Committee – 14th May

Report on yearend PDR's

- All Yearend PDRs were completed by the deadline of 30th April, with the exception of one, who has been off ill.
- Received positive feedback on the process which was more streamlined.
- New form which had input from external trainer who provided a session with managers on how to approach review meetings.
- New to this year was calibration sessions with SMT for the rest of the organisation and with Remco for SMT.

Gift and Hospitality Register activity 24/25

Chair and Board Member Day rate & expense Claim Rates 2025/ 2026 rate

Remco Annual Report

Reviewed report, nothing to report. It is in the board papers later in the agenda for information and if Board having any comments.

Additional Meeting

Additional virtual meeting planned for September to look at succession planning matrix.

Sheep Industry Leadership Group – 27th May

- Following inaugural meeting, three key themes identified: sheep benchmarking/enterprise costing; animal health & welfare; stabilising sheep numbers.
- Second meeting held on 27 May – theme: animal health and welfare.
- There were updates on the work of Livestock Health Scotland and The Ruminant Health and Welfare Steering Group.
- The group heard from Dr Emma McGowan, QMS who gave a presentation on genomics and production traits.
- This prompted a comprehensive discussion around the benefits of focusing on improving conditions associated with simple versus complex traits, and which would have the widest benefit to the industry (economically and in terms of number of flocks affected).
- This highlighted that genetic data for commercial sheep sector is currently unavailable.
- The discussion focused on what the value would be to have data collected on given indicator traits, and what the logistics would be of doing so. The group considered the ROI in economic and administrative terms.
- The group then heard from the Roslin Institute and the Royal Dick School of Veterinary Studies on current areas of research, e.g. survival ability of lambs, mastitis in sheep etc.

Climate & Nature Industry Leadership Group – 29th May

- Following inaugural meeting, three key themes identified: the importance of a strong evidence base; right messaging to the right person at the right time; thinking holistically and harmonising practices between farming & nature.
- The group heard updates from Prof John Gilliland on the Food Data Transparency Partnership and Bruce McConachie and Holly McLennan on the baselining project and supporting comms plan.
- Mo Mands, Gleneagles and Gill Higgins, Dawnmeats, presented to the group on 'What carbon footprints mean downstream'.
- This was an eye-opening talk which highlighted how crucial it is that industry consider and respond to what the private sector is requesting, not just the public and government audiences.
- This led to a discussion on the opportunity to streamline and profile emissions data, and the inadequate formulae that have been used to calculate the carbon footprint of meat products to date (e.g. using economic value of product to inform size of carbon footprint).
- The group was asked by the chair to consider the previous SWOT analysis put together after the first meeting, to see if any amendments need to be made to accommodate issues raised in this meeting's discussion. This will then help to identify a key objective to take forward under this theme. Audit &amp; Risk Management Committee – 24th June Ann Irvine provided the QMS Board with an update on the Audit &amp; Risk Management Committee meeting, which took place on 24th June. This included updated on the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Internal audit – Annual Report 2024/2025 – very positive – each had substantial assurance. Ann placed on record a thanks to everyone on the team for their work on this.</li> <li>• Performance measure of reviews was 100%</li> <li>• Audit plan for 2025 / 2026 – Q2 focussed on Core Financial Controls and Q3 focussed on Consumer Assurance Schemes</li> <li>• Additional audit areas to be considered by QMS going forward</li> <li>• External audit – wash up meeting and an additional meeting between the Audit &amp; Risk Committee / Audit Scotland to be arranged</li> <li>• Expenses and alcohol policy still under review</li> <li>• Reviewed self-evaluation questionnaire – very positive</li> </ul>
