

ARE YOU

COLLEGE READY?

What is Hospitality Service (Front of House)?

Working in any Hospitality setting is fun, rewarding but equally demanding. A career Front of House can be as diverse as starting out as a Waiter/ess leading up to and including being a General Manager of a Leading Hotel of the World. The term "Front of the House" refers to any location within a restaurant or hotel where customers are allowed. This includes the dining room, bar, and restrooms. Management of the front of the house includes customer service; hiring, training, and managing staff; stocking and designing the dining room and bar; and planning menus, promotions, and other events.
