Student Careers Education, Information, Advice and Guidance (CEIAG) Entitlement

We aim to provide appropriate Careers Education, Information, Advice and Guidance (CEIAG) for all students. This is provided from a range of staff, including Progress Tutors, Curriculum Performance Managers, subject tutors, Student Development Managers, HelpZone and InfoZone staff, Careers Advisers and Student Support staff. This advice is available both through the curriculum content and via specialist careers based meetings. This provision is your entitlement during your time as a student here at York College.

This entitlement provides a menu of opportunities you can access during your time with us.

Finding the right progression route after you have completed your course is critical if you are to fulfil your potential. Making full use of our services and expertise could really help you to achieve your ambitions and dreams.

Your entitlement

Whilst you are a student at York College we will provide:

- A stable and structured careers programme which is available to view on our website, is part of your tutorial programme and seeks feedback from students, parents and carers.
- Access to high quality information about future study options and labour market opportunities.
- Support that meets your needs at a time in the year that is best for you.
- The opportunity to experience how your subjects help you gain entry to a wide range of occupations
- A range of activities to enable you to meet with employers and learn about the world of work and to develop your employability skills.
- Experiences of the work place.
- A range of opportunities to meet future providers of higher education, apprenticeships and training.
- The opportunity for one-to-one guidance meetings with a Careers Adviser, that are impartial, confidential and up-to-date.
