Here at Shorefield holidays we are committed to not only providing the best available meat and poultry but also committed to supporting local farmers and suppliers, that is why we have teamed up with New Forest butchers "New Pastures" who proudly supply us with "New Forest Marque" butchery produce.

"We are a family of farmers as well as butchers, so we understand meat from field to plate. The cattle we rear graze freely in the New Forest National Park, feeding on grass and heather which gives us unique products and tastes. Meat provenance adds interest and appeal to the food we serve. We like to work with our customers to fulfil the increasing demand for better quality, locally sourced meat across the UK.

Our family has a long family tradition in being a New Forest based butcher. We have bred animals on our farms and dealt with other family farms based in Dorset, Wiltshire and Hampshire for generations. Our historic connections and field to fork experience allows us to offer high quality meats, locally bred and with a strong provenance. A recent survey indicated that 80% of people questioned expressed a preference for food with a local connection."
