

SILVERLINING

STUDIO & WORKSHOP | EST. 1985

CASCADE

G1575-06

OVERVIEW

PROS

Offcut veneer used

CONS

Glues solvent-based and not water-based yet

KEY PROCESSES

- General assembly by hand
- CNC: Core, sides and metal
- Laser cutting marquetry
- Laminating leather and timber
- Hand brushed S/S

CORE MATERIALS

- Aluminium Honeycomb 25mm
- MR (moisture resistant) substrate

ADHESIVE

- Veneer: Solvent-based
- Leather: Solvent-based
- Assembly: Solvent-based
- Veneer: Water-based
- Leather: Water-based
- Assembly: Water-based

CLADDING

- Offcut veneer and straw marquetry
- Stacked leather and timber edge
- Stainless steel
- Alcantara back
- Replace trim with solid wood
- Organic alternative

FINISH

- Lacquer: Solvent-based
- Wax to leather / timber edge
- Lacquer: Water-based

SAMPLE COMPONENTS

POTENTIAL ALTERNATIVES

KEY

- Sustainable
- Fair
- Could be improved

In line with our company values we strive to be transparent with the materials and processes we use in our bespoke manufacturing with you, our clients.

If you see something above you want to question, we encourage you to ask us for more detail and we can advise on alternatives that might suit your needs better.

For all enquiries, or to discuss the commissioning process, please contact:

enquiries@silverliningfurniture.com
+44 (0) 1948 822 150

“With all of our one-off creations, they are designed and made to be passed on through the generations”

Mark Boddington

silverliningfurniture.com

Copyright © 2026 Silverlining Furniture Group Ltd
The Old Ordnance Factory, Bridge Road, Wrexham, LL13 9QS, United Kingdom