St Anne's Community Church

Penparcau

Aberystwyth

SY23 1RX

A welcoming community church. Whilst it is not so large in capacity, it has a real family feel. It is a building that is light and airy and has an adaptable hall that is attached to the building and available for hire. The stained-glass windows in the church let in an attractive light and makes for a warm atmosphere.

Vicar: J-D Laurence

Church open: Daily

Holy Trinity

Trinity Place,
Aberystwyth,
SY23 1LT

A grand building, with a certain regality, with one of its main assets being a stunningly long red carpeted aisle. The building has a real sense of space and anticipation. This Gothic style building also has a beautiful Tudor style staircase and entrance, making for great photo opportunities. The church is near the centre of town making it accessible. There is some street parking around, but St Michael's car park is available for hire at an additional cost.

Llanychaearn

Rhydyfelin, Aberystwyth, SY23 4QF

A beautiful countryside church in the shadow of Pen Dinas, nestled amongst Welsh landscape, by the river Ystwyth. The interior of the church is elegantly understated, and the surroundings peaceful and welcoming. Not far from the main road, and with space for parking, this church has the advantage of being close to the town for ease of access but the feel of the countryside.

St Mair's

Grays Inn Road, Aberystwyth, SY23 1QE

A quaint church concealed in the centre of town, with an exquisitely painted interior. With the options of a bell to mark your special occasion this traditional Welsh Anglican church is a real hidden gem! Whilst mainly lined with pews the building does also have an area at the rear of the building where your guests can gather and spend time sharing the special day with you and other people. This building is perfect for a traditional Welsh wedding.

Whilst there is not much parking space around the building St Michael's car park is available to hire at an additional cost.

St Michael's

Laura Place
Aberystwyth
SY23 2AU

A seaside church boasting stunning views of Cardigan Bay, this building built in the 1890's has a large interior capable of holding large weddings, as well as small. The colour of the sandstone brick adds a warm look to the building and the windows cast a stunning light across inside. There is also a well-equipped kitchen in the building making it an option to serve refreshments after your wedding service. The Castle and beach being close to the church means there is also a beautiful location for your photographs. The church also has a car park which is available to hire at an additional cost.

Open: 9am-5pm Daily, except Sunday when open for services.

Vicar: Mones Farah

Getting married in church

Personal legal requirements

1. Both partners are single. If one, or both, have been divorced then they need to meet with the Vicar before arranging the date to check that this will not be an obstacle.
2. Both partners are British Citizens. If one or both are not British we will need to clarify with the Embassy of the country of origin and our Diocesan Registrar (however this is not usually an immediate blockage).

Residential legal requirements

1. You must be resident within the Parish (Aberystwyth, including Penparcau and Llanfarian, but not Waunfawr or Llanbadarn).
2. Or have a qualifying connection including one of the following:
  - 2.1. Having a link with Aberystwyth such as having lived in Aberystwyth previously, or been a student here.
  - 2.2. Having a historical link with the parish, such as being baptised here, parents or grandparents marrying here.
  - 2.3. Habitual worship (3 out of four Sundays) for at least 6 months in the Parish.

You will also need to be willing to attend marriage preparation classes.
