Announcing The Café at Studio Voltaire

Studio Voltaire has today announced The Café at Studio Voltaire, a vibrant new eatery in Clapham, located inside the newly redeveloped not-for-profit arts organisation.

Set within the heart of an internationally renowned cultural centre and artistic community, this collaborative new culinary experience brings together communities in a lively and creative environment.

The Café is run by Italian Supper Club founders Toto Dell'Aringa and Silvio Pezzana, whose food is characterised by simple ingredients and bold flavours. With sustainability at its core, the team works with local food suppliers to offer a seasonal menu that showcases the best of British ingredients with an Italian twist.

With 35 covers, there will be a daily menu of fresh pastries and homemade cakes, sandwiches and salads, alongside a changing menu of warm, seasonal specials. Visitors can also purchase a range of takeaway deli options, including homemade preserves, oils, granola and an exciting range of natural wines.

The Café at Studio Voltaire also offers a range of unique spaces available for private functions, weddings, corporate events and drink receptions, bringing together Italian Supper Club's extensive experience in event production with Studio Voltaire's distinctive Victorian gallery and industrial buildings. All hires support the charity's innovative artistic and community programmes.

The Café at Studio Voltaire opens on Friday 15 October 2021.
